

Students say “Thank You” to Teachers on Teachers’ Day!

By Ceci Chan (4A) and Coco Yip (4B)

Teachers’ Day was on 10th September, 2012. Students needed to be polite to teachers at school and they could also write cards to their favourite teachers.

The Teachers’ Day was set up by the Education Bureau. On Teachers’ Day, students could write cards to the teachers, like Mr. Cheung, Miss Wong, Mr. Chan and Miss Sean. The teachers taught the students a lot of things. Students could also give teachers some chocolates, cookies, gifts, or even a big bunch of flowers. They could also tell something about themselves, and then the teachers would know more about them. Teachers’ Day made a better student-teacher relationship. The teachers would love the students more if they did something to make their teachers happy.

Ivan Lai (4B) and Edison Chan (4B) said, “We are very happy because we love Teachers’ Day!” Betty Leung (4A) said, “I wrote ‘Thank you’ to my favourite teacher.”

“I gave a flower to my favourite teacher. He is the best teacher in my world!” said Jenna Tan (4C).

Teachers’ Day was important because students learnt that they should be polite to the teachers and be good students.

All Students Clean Classrooms

By Celia Tsang (4E) and Wylie Tsang (4E)

On 24th September at 1:00 p.m., all P.4-6 students cleaned their classrooms in Lee Kam Primary School, but all P.1-3 students cleaned the classrooms on 4th October at 1:00 p.m.

All the students and their class teachers used towels and newspapers to clean their classrooms, because Lee Kam Primary School’s teachers wanted the students to help the school helpers to clean the classroom and to learn always not to throw rubbish on the floor.

The students learnt how the school helpers clean the classroom every day. 4E’s class teacher Mr. Chan said, “I’m happy to clean the classroom because the students tried their best to clean the classroom.” And we asked some students, “Do you want to clean the classroom? Why?” Ceci Chan in P.4 said, “Yes, I want to clean the classroom because I like to clean the classroom.”

The students clean the classrooms once a year and will clean the classrooms again next year.

P.6 Students Go on a Farm Trip

By Ronica Yau (6B) and Fiona Fung (6C)

All the P.6 students and their class teachers went to Tuen Mun New Life Farm on 22nd October. It was very comfortable to be a farmer on this sunny day. It was also a nice day for the P.6 students too.

The students went to the New Life Farm by bus. It took about fifteen minutes. Then, the students listened to the workers about what they were going to do. The workers also told them the farm was as big as three football fields. It was so big! The air was fresh and smelt like grass. In Hong Kong, there are a few places that don't have so many cars and aren't too polluted. The tourists who visit there can feel very relaxed.

The workers brought the students to a field that had no vegetables. They told them, "You are going to try to cultivate vegetables. After we teach you how to do it, you must take a hoe and do it yourself." But it was too hard for the students to use the hoe because it was so heavy. The students were tired, but they had a great time in the field. After, they made plant pots using half a bottle, a pair of scissors and a long rope, and were given flowers as pieces of memorabilia. Some drew some pictures on the pots. The workers urged the students to take care of their flowers every day so they would not die easily.

The students returned after they did these two activities. The students saw many green, healthy and fresh vegetables in the fields. The vegetables in New Life Farm are organic, which is why they are more expensive than normal vegetables. Finally, the students and teachers walked to a canteen. They felt very hot because many of them wore long jeans. Fortunately, there were cheap, healthy drinks made by Citronella, which were cold and delicious so they could quench the students' thirst. The canteen had many products too. The students learnt at New Life Farm that they should not waste food.

A Brand New Orchestra at Lee Kam

By Ryan Kan (4E) and Max Chan (4B)

A new orchestra was set up at Lee Kam Primary School with the lessons starting on 29th September, 2012. There are thirty lessons this year and there are 19 members of the orchestra. Everyone plays different types of instruments in the class, including violin, saxophone, flute and clarinet.

Mr. Brian Cheung is the conductor of the orchestra. He teaches seven classes from different schools. He also plays the violin, viola and piano. He performs one to two times a year at the town hall. He said, "The most difficult thing in teaching an orchestra is to control the students' discipline and some students always hit the wrong note."

Kimi Chan in 5E is one of the members of the orchestra. He said, "I think the orchestra is fun and I enjoy playing the saxophone during class."

The Lee Kam orchestra will perform a song called "Trumpet Minuet" on 12th December, 2012.

Kung Fu Panda 2

By Smiling Po (4A) and Yoyo Wong (5C)

Kung Fu Panda 2 is a funny cartoon movie set a long time ago. A peacock, Lord Shen wanted to be king of China. But the Dragon Warrior Po (the actor is Jack Black) and his friends had a fight with him because he wanted to destroy Kung Fu and be the king of China. The peacock, Lord Shen, wanted to kill Po, Po's friends and Po's Kung Fu teacher so this world wouldn't have Kung Fu.

We liked to watch Kung Fu Panda 2 because it was interesting. We thought the best part was when Po and his friends fought with the peacock Lord Shen. We thought this part was exciting. We didn't like the part when Lord Shen caught people.

Ceci in 4A liked it, but she didn't like Po and his friends fighting with Lord Shen because she thought this part was boring. Coco in 4B didn't like it because it was too boring and very scary.

Wylie Tsang in 4E said "Yes, I liked to watch this movie because Po is funny."

Lee Kam Acrostic Poem

By Connie Wong (6A)

Lets me learn more about the rules.
Each child can have fun,
Eating happily in the canteen.

Keeping quiet during the lesson.
A big and beautiful school,
Many subjects are interesting.

Students have good results in the exam.
Children never do naughty things.
Hall has many air-conditioners.
Outside, there is a very big playground.
On top of Lee Kam, there is a garden with some beautiful flowers.
Lee Kam is a peaceful school.

Miss Ho, A Perfect Teacher

By Jessica To (6B) and Connie Wong (6A)

Miss Ho teaches us Chinese and P.E.

She is 1C's class teacher and 6B's

Chinese teacher. She always goes out with the badminton team to competitions. She likes running very much. She can run very fast. She doesn't usually smile and Miss Ho does not like students who talk during her lesson because it makes her angry.

Miss Ho is very nice. When an exam is coming, she makes competitions to help the children get higher marks. If one group wins, she will give some sweets to them. She is worried that we will not pass the exam and says we ought to work hard before the exam. Of course, the students get good marks.

When Miss Ho is teaching, she will give us some information about the unit so that we can learn more. For example, if the unit is about a nurse who helps soldiers, Miss Ho will give students some information about nurses.

Interview with Ms. Ho

Q: How many family members do you have?

A: I have four family members.

Q: Do you like Lee Kam?

A: I like Lee Kam very much.

Q: Where have you taught before?

A: I taught at Wu Siu Kui Memorial Primary School.

Q: Do you like running?

A: I like running very much.

P.4 Students Use iPads in Maths and General Studies

By Crystal Wan (6A) and Ting Lai (5B)

In September, P.4 students used iPads in Maths and General Studies classes. They were very excited. Four students used one iPad. They needed to keep a distance of 30 cm from the screen. If the children didn't keep a distance of 30 cm, they might have to wear a pair of glasses. They didn't use their fingers to write. Instead, the Lee Kam Primary School teachers downloaded books for them. They used the iPad to make a shape in maths and study a picture of a brain in general studies.

On TV, TVB reporters interviewed another school teacher who said iPad teaching was very good. The other school had used iPads to teach. The principal of the other school in Hong Kong thought it was a good idea because the children paid attention to the teacher. The iPad is expensive but can be used for many years if it doesn't break.

We interviewed a student, Smiling from 4A, who said, "I loved iPad teaching. I never wanted it to end because it was fun."

Lee Kam Acrostic Poem

By Coco Yip (4B)

Learning and eating are fun.
Eating hot dogs,
Eating sausages and learning Chinese, English and Math.

Kicking a football,
Amazing!
My friends and I are happy.

Students playing at school,
Cycling or football.
How do they play? Teachers will teach them,
Or we can learn in the playground.
Or we can play on the iPad.
Learning at Lee Kam Primary School is fun.

Lee Kam Students Love "Gangnam Style"

By Gordon Lee (4E), Henry Tsang (5D) and Rapheal Sin (6B)

In October, when P.4-P.6 students had time, they listened to PSY's "Gangnam Style" music video on YouTube. PSY is a Korean musician. He is 36 years old. "Gangnam Style" is about people who are cool from the Gangnam district in Seoul, Korea. On YouTube, there are more than 600,000,000 people who have watched the "Gangnam Style" music video. P.4-P.6 students always do PSY's dance in the playground during recess. To do the "Gangnam Style" dance, you have to make an 'X' with your arms, or make a circle above your head and hop to the music.

Carson Lam in 4C said, "I like to dance like that because it's funny and popular." We also asked 4E's class teacher Mr. Chan. He said, "I like the song because it is interesting." We asked Connie Wong in 6A too. She said, "I like it because it is funny and interesting."

Students hope that "Gangnam Style" lasts forever because Lee Kam students like it very much.
