

Students and Teachers Go on Sai Kung Trip

By Wylie Tsang (4E) and Coco Yip (4B)

On 23th February, 2013, 14 students in P.3,4,5,6, Miss So and Miss Fung went to Sai Kung Outdoor Recreation Centre because the teachers wanted to train the students to learn how to take care of themselves. The teachers said that doing sports and art can help students to play happily and learn how to play when there are no parents.

In the morning, they went to the hall to play games with another school's students like Wu Sui Kui Memorial Primary School. They were excited because "The Saying Game" (where you say something that you like and usually do) was funny and interesting. After that, the students played sports like basketball, cycling and table tennis. There were a lot of sports centres there. Dedo Man (4B) went to the art room to do some art. Next, they went to a canteen to eat a lunch of rice, fish, vegetables and corn soup. After that, they went to do sports again. This time, the students had a basketball competition. The competition was exciting because the students in P.5 and P.6 were good at basketball. The P.6 students were the red group and the P.5 students were the green group. Finally, the red group won the competition. All the students left at 4:00 pm.

After the trip, we asked some students about their feelings. Dedo Man (4B) said, "I feel happy!" Crystal Lam (4D) said, "I learned how to take care of myself!"

Stars Perform and Share Their Life Stories

By Celia Tsang (4E) and Connie Wong (6A)

On 12th March, from 12:50 pm to 14:10 pm, there was a show called "Life Farmer 2012" where stars performed and shared how they work and their life stories. It was about how you should be like a farmer who is very hard-working. The companies who organised it were Roadshow, SNAZZ MUSIC and the Tung Wah Group of Hospitals. The show was held in our school hall. Students learnt how we should have our own dream and make it come true.

Some of the stars that came to our school were E02's Eric Tse and Rainky Wai. They shared life stories, such as how they became a star and how it was very difficult. They performed singing and dancing. There were also some dancers who came to our school. They said, "We have practiced the dance steps since we learned how to dance. It isn't easy." Eric Tse taught us the dance steps of E02's new song "Wooh Yeah". It wasn't easy to learn. Rainky Wai didn't dance but she sang a song called "Missing You".

By Kelvin Hui (4D), Gordon Lee (4E) and Jessica To (6B)

On 10th March, five primary four and three primary three students went to the Bear Children's music centre. They wanted to record the Lee Kam song.

The Bear Children's Music Centre is in Lai Chi Kok. Our school teacher, Miss Chan too the eight students there.

They sang the song of Lee Kam and recorded it. They wanted to let another school to hear the song of Lee Kam. The teachers of Bear Children's Music Centre thought our song, "Love Lee Kam" and "We Are Super" sounded very beautiful. They practised and practised until they were very good. The students in our school always sing these songs too.

The songs "We Are Super" and "Love Lee Kam" are very meaningful. The song "We Are Super" is about our school's vision. It is very popular in our school. Many students think it is an interesting song.

The students who went to record the songs said that they wanted to have more activities like this and that they would definitely join in them again.

The P4.-P.6 Lee Kam table tennis, basketball and football teams went to a competition on 16th March. They went to Semple Secondary School, Leung Chik Wai Memorial school and CY Ma Memorial College.

There were ten students who went to play basketball in CY Ma Memorial, four students who went to play table tennis there and three students who went to play Chinese chess. They went there with Mr Liu and Mr Chan too. Also, there were nine students who went to play basketball in Semple Secondary School with Mr Chan. Lastly, there were nine students who played basketball in Leung Chik Wai and three students who played table tennis there with Miss Kwan.

There were nine basketball team students only, but they won at last luckily. Also, the tennis table team won in CY Ma. What great news!

P.5 and P.6 Go on Shanghai Trip

By Vienne Chiu (4C) and Ryan Ka (4E)

From 31st March to 4th April, some P.5 and P.6 students went on a trip to Shanghai with our teachers Mr. Ng, Miss Hung and Mr. Zhong. They went there by train. During the trip, they visited a local school and joined in their classes. They also did street interviews, went sight-seeing around Shanghai and visited the Environmental Protection Enterprise. From this trip, they learned about how to save energy and learned about the newest technology for producing and saving electricity.

Mr. Ng enjoyed the trip because he could see how Shanghai has developed and he could also learn more about their culture and lifestyle. He was impressed by the old-fashioned buildings and the traditional snacks in Shanghai. But he didn't like the environment there.

All of the students and teachers still thought this was a nice trip because they learned so much from it.

Mr. Cheung, 4A's Class Teacher

By Ceci Chan (4A) and Smiling Po (4A)

Mr. Cheung is 4A's class teacher. He teaches us English, General Studies and Computer. He lives in Hung Hom with his wife.

Mr. Cheung has taught for about 10 years. Before teaching in Lee Kam School, he taught in Ho Yat Tung School. He likes his class, 4A, very much. He always tells jokes to them, and he sometimes makes funny faces to make them laugh. He is a very kind teacher!

He likes to run and often goes to the street and runs for an hour to keep fit. He also likes to ride a bike. He also likes tea. He always brings a cup of tea to class when he is teaching but he sometimes forgets his cup when he leaves!

We think he is kind and funny. We asked some students what they think about him. Coco Yip said, "I think he is kind. My class likes him very much."

Q: Who is your friend at Lee Kam School?

A: Mr. Lee is my best friend.

Q: Why do you like being a teacher?

A: I like to be a teacher because I like working with children.

Q: Was your English good when you were a student?

A: My English was not very good when I was a student but I practiced a lot, so I got good marks later.

My Dream Interview

By Ryan Ka (4E)

If I could interview anyone in the past, I would interview Mozart because I think he is the king of composers. He could compose one symphony in just one week! Other composers would take much longer to compose a symphony, so that's why I would want to talk to him.

I would ask him how hard composing is and questions about why he is interested in music. I would ask him to teach me to play the violin and the piano too, and to tell me about his life.

Finally, I would take him to Hong Kong to enjoy a buffet with him.

My Dream Interview

By Smiling Po (4A)

If I could interview anyone, I would interview Beethoven because he is a great and famous pianist. I always listen to his songs. I think they are pleasant to listen to.

If I had a time machine, I would ride it and go to when and where Beethoven lived. I would ask him about his life. I want to know why he likes music and I would also ask him how he could write songs when he was deaf. I would like to give him a new piano.

Finally, I would ask him to teach me how to compose a song, and then we could write a song together!

P.4 to P.6 Students Go to Camp

By Crystal Wan (6A) and Ronica Yau (6B)

From 17th April to 19th April, P.4 to P.6 students went to camp. Each grade went to different places to camp.

P.4 students went to Tso Kung Tam Outdoor Recreation Centre. They met up with a team organising the camp called the “Tung Wah Group of Hospitals—Tuen Mun Integrated Service Centre”. This team organised games for the students that taught them how to be persistent, determined and not give up.

P.5 students went to the Hong Kong Baptist Park where their camp was organised by the “Methodist Church—Tuen Mun Integrated Youth Service Centre”. They did marching activities, personal reflection and group sharing to improve their communication skills. They learned to support and care for each other.

P.6 students went to Po Leung Kuk Pak Tam Chung Holiday Camp. They participated in adventure activities. They played a lot of games and learned how to cooperate in all of them. They were very happy because they learned a lot of things.

Ken Tse (6A) said, “I was very happy to go camping because this was the last time I could go with primary school classmates!” We also asked Coco Wong (6B) what she learned from camp. She said, “I learned to undertake tasks well from camp.”

Parents Watch Lessons

By Ting Lai (5B) and Yoyo Wong (5C)

On Friday 1st March, 2013, Some P.1 to P.6 students' parents went to their children's classrooms to watch their lessons. They went to watch their children so they could know if their children were naughty or good and what they were learning and what they know. The parents sat at the back of their children's classroom to watch the lessons.

The parents watched the last lesson of the day. Hailey Chan in 5B said, “I felt scared because the parents were watching us. They watched our English lesson.” Henry Tsang in 5D said, “I was happy because parents could see me answer questions.” The parents of students in different classes watched different lessons.

Some students were happy on that day. They hope the parents can go next year too!
