P.5 Guangzhou Trip

By Cherry Sin (5D) and Shiny Lau (5A)

From 19th December to 20th December, 2014, all P.5 students from Lee Kam Primary School went to Guangzhou by bus. It took them three hours to get there.

First, they went to Ramble Art Centre. Mrs. Ramble was a famous Chinese Opera singer. At the Art Centre, there was a small cinema. It broadcasted a film about Mrs. Ramble's life. Then, the students saw different statues of Mrs. Ramble. Next, they went to Guang Dong Provincial Museum. It was very spectacular there. The museum showed many exhibits about the history of the area. There were three floors at the museum. Miss Yam, one of the teachers on the trip, said, "I liked going to Guang Dong Provincial Museum most because the exhibits were very interesting. It was a real eye opener for me."

On the second day, they went to three places. First, they went to Shiwan Doll Street. This street had many local toys that were made of earthenware. There were also two waterfalls. One was composed of thousands of abandoned toilets! The students thought that was very special. Pauline Chan from 5B said, "I liked Shiwan Doll Street very much because there were lots of dolls. I want to go there again." Then, they went to the Foshan Ancestral Temple. It had stone lions, ceramic tiles and a stage for Chinese Opera. It was very beautiful. Finally, they went to Foshan Folle Art Society. There were many things to buy, but the things were very expensive, so the students didn't buy anything.

They felt very happy and learned a lot of information about Guangzhou. They all want to go there again.

Meaningful Drama Performance

By Ryan Ka (6B) and Kelvin Hui (6E)

On 18th December, 2014, the drama group from Lee Kam Primary School performed a drama in the hall. The performance was to entertain the students and to teach them a lesson about Christmas.

The drama was called The Most Important Gift in Finland. The script was written by the students in the drama group. It was about a group of pirates who wanted to steal Santa Claus's presents. The captain of the pirates wanted to marry the king's daughter. The king didn't want the captain to marry his daughter, so he used a magic stone to turn the captain into a tree. Then, the king realised that the captain was not bad, and he turned him back into a human. So, he let him marry his daughter in the end. This story tells us that friendship, not gifts, is the most important thing at Christmas

There were more than twenty students in the drama group. They needed to practise on Tuesdays, and they had extra practices on Saturdays before the performance. Miss Karen, the school's NET, looked after them and organised them. She chose students who were good at English to be in the performance. Celia Tsang from 6C said, "The best thing about being in the drama group is learning about team work. I enjoy being in the group. My favourite part of the performance was at the end when the captain and the princess got married because I like stories with a happy ending!"

The next performance by the drama group will be The Wizard of Oz. We hope to see it soon!

P.6 Dongguan Trip

By Smiling Po (6B) and Ceci Chan (6C)

From 19th December to 20th December, P.6 students had a wonderful trip to Dongguan. Their class teachers and other teachers went with them. They went by bus, and the trip took about three hours. The school wanted them to go on this trip to learn more about the economy and development of Dongguan. After the trip, the students needed to present information about what they learned to P.5 students.

They went to Dongshen Water Supply Project on the first day. They watched a video about this water supply project. They learned that the clean water supplies Shenzhen and Hong Kong. Then, they had lunch in Dongguan Lung Cheung Technology Co. Ltd., and they visited the company. They saw the smallest robot in the world which was made in their factory, and they also played with robots inside. They had a lot of fun in Lung Cheung. That night, the students stayed in hotels. Suki Lam from 6C said, "I had a lot of fun with my friends on this trip. We learned many things and had fun staying in the hotel!"

The next morning, they went to the library in Dongguan. It was huge, and the students walked around the library and looked at the books such as comics, storybooks and science books. Then, they went to Dongguan Exhibition Hall. They learned more about the economy in the past and now in Dongguan. Some of them took some photos for the report after the trip. Terence Tong from 6B said, "I thought the trip was good because I learned more about the relationship between Hong Kong and China."

Many people thought the best part of the trip was visiting Dongguan Science and Technology Museum. There were a lot of amazing robots and exhibits. Some of the robots cooked eggs, and some changed light bulbs. They saw a robot playing music for them! Each robot played one musical instrument. They played a song called "Jasmine". The students also played small machine games in the museum, and there was even a 3D printer!

After this visit, they went back to Hong Kong. They thought the trip was interesting because they could learn a lot from it.

I.T. Helpers

By William Lee (5B), Thomas Yip (4B) and Kubi Cheung (4A)

Do you know about the I.T. helpers? What is their job? Let us tell you about them. At Lee Kam Primary School, there are two types of I.T. helpers. There are the I.T. Students and the I.T. Kids. All of these helpers work to make surfing the internet faster and easier.

Each class from P.1-P.6 has two I.T. Students. The students are chosen to be I.T. Students by their class teacher. Their job is to turn the computer on and off, work the projector and arrange the screen for the teacher. I.T. Students are important people at LKPS because they help each class to run faster. If we didn't have them, the teachers would be very busy.

What about the I.T. Kids? Is their job the same as the I.T. Students? No. They are different. They help in the computer room at recess time. Their job is to help students find websites, check that students are not on Facebook or YouTube, and monitor the computer room. Each I.T. Kid monitors the computer room once a week and six students do the job at once. The I.T. Kids are chosen by the teachers. Marco Lai from 4B said, "I like to be an I.T. Kid because I like to help others and I am good at using computers. I enjoy the time when I do my job."

Have you been an I.T. Student or an I.T. Kid before? Was it fun? If you want to be an I.T. Kid, you can ask Miss Chuang.

The English DJs

By Joy Chung (5C) and Amanda Chong (5C)

Every month, the English DJs perform for the students at Lee Kam Primary School. Their performances are special because they help the students at LKPS to learn more English.

The DJs are chosen by Miss Karen, the English activities teacher. She chooses students who are good at English to become DJs. They learn how to sing in English and how to dance. Miss Karen teaches them, and they practise a couple of times per week. They usually perform in the hall, and the whole school watches them.

Every month, Miss Karen will choose a new song for them to perform. They have performed many songs such as Let it Go, Roar and Frosty the Snowman. The performers are so amazing. Each song is unique and special. Their actions are very interesting. Helen Chin from 4B said, "I enjoy being a DJ because I learn how to sing in English. Being in this activity is very fun."

The DJs work very hard, and they teach the students to dance and sing too. Every month, one class will dance and sing with the DJs. The songs are chosen by Miss Karen and Miss So.

Thank you to the English DJs for entertaining us and helping us with our English!
