

Chinese Day at LKPS

By Mavis Ma (5A) and Amanda Chong (5C)

On 6th March, 2015, all teachers, students and helpers in Lee Kam Primary School had a Chinese Day. For Chinese Day, most of them wore pretty and colourful Chinese costumes to their classes. On the costumes, there were flowers and dragons.

They did many things to celebrate Chinese New Year. At recess, on the ground floor, students guessed the answers to riddles written on pieces of cardboard.

There were about 150 riddles. When students had guessed the answers to the riddles, they could go to tell the helpers. If they got the answers right, they could get one candy for each correct answer. Besides, students could also get candies by saying auspicious words to the teachers. For example, "Kung Hei Fat Choi", and "Good health". Moreover, photographers of LKPS took photos of students who wore Chinese costumes.

Angela Chong from 1D said, "I enjoyed the Chinese Day very much because there were many fun things I could do. My favourite part of that day was guessing the riddles. I got many candies. I love Chinese Day!"

Mr. Ng (5C class teacher) said, "I enjoyed the Chinese Day and I wore a Chinese costume that day. I helped students with problems and my favourite part was giving candies to students. It was a great day."

Everyone enjoyed the Chinese Day. Therefore, everyone is looking forward to next year's Chinese Day.

LKPS Sports Day

By Thomas Yip (4B) and Helen Chin (4B)

On 1st April, 2015, LKPS held a Sports Day at Tang Shiu Kin Sports Ground because the teachers wanted the students to do more exercise and have fun.

On that day, students wore different coloured polo shirts to show what classes they were. They had a cheering competition. Sincere won because they wore very special gold crowns. Some of the students wore red hats and some also drew some cartoons on their faces.

P.3 to P.6 students had some sports competitions like shot put, running and long jump. And P.1 to P.2 students played some exciting class competitions with their parents, like the students' and parents' relay. 1D and 2A won the competition.

In the afternoon, the students had 4x100m relays with teachers. Energetic won the most prizes. Joyce Law from 4B said, "I won the first prize in the 100m running competition."

Before the competitions, there was a flag raising ceremony. They sang the national anthem and the school song.

After the competition, they had a closing ceremony and Miss So talked to all the people in the sports ground. Mr. Liu also gave the prizes to the winners of the relay. Then all the people went home happily. They had a wonderful day.

School Camps

By Lorayne Lee (4B) Nicole Lai (6B) and William Lee (5B)

On 11th to 13th February, P.4-P.6 students went to Tso Kung Tam, Pak Tam Chung and Tai Tong for school camps, because the headmistress wanted them to learn to take care of themselves.

The P.4 students went to Tso Kung Tam Outdoor Recreation Centre. The first day they played games and had a yummy lunch and dinner. One game was called Dragonfly Touching the Water. To play the game, the students had to get to a plastic circle on the floor without crossing over a line, but the distance to the circle was long. It was funny. On the second day, the students had marching training. Many students hated it. Some of them said, "Help!", "I will faint!" and "Oh goodness..." On the third day, they had free time. Some students went to the gym to play badminton, some went to roller-skate, and some went to do archery. The P.4 students had a memorable time.

The P.5 students went to Jockey Club Tai Tong Holiday Camp. They met Tim Sir there. He has a loud voice. On the first day, they played happily. However, they weren't happy on the second day because they had to do marching. They felt tired after marching. And someone almost had heatstroke. Matthew Wong from 5B said, "I liked most of the activities at the camp, but the marching was the worst!" The third day was the best day for P.5 students because they could play whatever they wanted. They had profound days.

The P.6 students went to Pak Tam Chung Holiday Camp. On the first day, they listened to an introduction to the camp and they chose a group name. After they ate a good dinner, they had some warm-up games. Then, they went to their rooms to go to bed, but most of them couldn't sleep. On the second day, they had to do marching training too. The teacher said, "This marching training can turn you into good students because you can learn how to obey us." But the P.6s said the same thing as the P.4s. Although they were tired in the end, they had an unforgettable time. Daisy Lee of 6B said, "I enjoyed the camp because we learned to take responsibility for the things we did. I played many teamwork games and I loved them because I learned teamwork is important. I just loved the camp!"

Are you looking forward to next year's school camp? We hope you enjoy the camp next year.

Jason Chan

By Ceci Chan (6C) and Vienne Chiu (6A)

Jason Chan Chun Sang in 6A is very good at sports. His birthday is on 26th February, and he has a sister in secondary school. He is very famous at school, especially among the students who play football.

He plays football and volleyball. and he likes running. He won a lot of awards in the sports competition. Mr. Liu, who is the sports teacher, likes him so much. Jason is famous because he is very good at sports!

He likes to play computer games, like Minecraft, and watch YouTube. He always talks about it at school. He has a lot of fans and friends at school because he likes making jokes!

Jason is very optimistic and helpful at school. His dream is to become a YouTuber or a football player. If he can work hard, he can achieve his dream. We wish him good luck!

Poon Choi Party

By Smiling Po (6B) and Celia Tsang (6C)

On 6th March, 2015, LKPS conducted a Poon Choi party. Many students joined in the party with their parents and relatives. The Poon Choi party was held in the playground.

The Poon Choi party started at half past six in the evening. There were many amazing performances. Some students performed piano, like CoCo Yip from 6A. She performed a classical song and it sounded very good. Also, some students and their parents performed a magic show for people who joined the Poon Choi party and did some tricks with playing cards.

There was a lucky draw too. Everyone who joined the lucky draw was enthusiastic because they wanted to have a gift. The P.1 students called out their numbers loudly and hoped they could have a prize. There were lots of presents such as coupons, junk food and decorative items like piggy banks. When someone received presents they felt glad.

They ate Poon Choi too with rice and chrysanthemum or lemon tea. Poon Choi is a food from China and there are many ingredients inside a pot like prawns, chicken, mushrooms and vegetables. The school helped them to order the Poon Choi. Everyone cheered before they started to eat. They had a great meal. The parents and students talked together when they were eating. Agnes Man from 6B said, “My favourite part of the Poon Choi party was eating Poon Choi because it tasted good.”

They had a great night. Pasty Wong (6B) said she enjoyed the performances, especially CoCo’s piano performance. She chatted and played all night with her friends. Also, Poon Choi gave her so much happiness. Everyone who joined the Poon Choi party hopes this activity can be continued next year.

Mr. Ng

By Kename Chan (5C) and Shiny Lau (5A)

Mr. Ng is the class teacher of 5C at LKPS. He teaches 2B Chinese and 4D General Studies. He also teaches Road Safety Patrol every Wednesday. He has taught at LKPS for four years. Mr. Ng said, “When I am free, I want to play with my child. Before I came to teach at Lee Kam, I was also a teacher.”

His students love him because he is funny and kind. Sometimes, he will punish students when they are naughty. During the lesson, he will tell some jokes too. Leon Lai from 5C said, “I love Mr. Ng because he is funny. Although he is strict, he likes to tell jokes.”

Mr. Ng’s best friend in LKPS is Miss Chan. She is 1D’s class teacher. She is also a Road Safety Patrol teacher.

All of the students at Lee Kam love Mr. Ng very much. They hope Mr. Ng can always teach them happily.

The Good People & Good Deeds OF Lee Kam

Social Workers

By Kelvin Hui (6E) and Ryan Ka (6B)

There are two social workers in S.T.F.A. Lee Kam Primary School. One of them is called Miss Yip. She is a very kind social worker. Another one is Mr. Hui. He is a new social worker. It was their first time working at LKPS. They enjoy working at the school. They always help children in need. They opened a class for some children in need.

They help children with their problems such as emotional problems. Mr. Hui said, “Sometimes some pupils are bad-tempered, so I appease them and calm them down after class and talk to them to solve their problem.”

They also lead a tutorial group, and they help pupils with communication problems too. Justine Tsu from 6E said, “They talk to me patiently and try to help me solve my problems.”

We asked Mr. Hui why he wanted to be a social worker. He said, “My mom and dad were social workers when I was young and I always went to a social centre to work, so I wanted to be a social worker.” The social workers are helpful, so we must thank them. The school can't be without them!

Orchestra Performance

By Joy Chung (5C) Cherry Sin (5D) and Kubi Cheung (4A)

On 24th February, 2015, Lee Kam P.4-P.6 Orchestra performed with musical instruments on stage. It was the first time they performed on Tuen Mun Town Hall's big stage.

In the Lee Kam Orchestra, there were some students performing on the violin, piano, flute, clarinet and cello. Their performances were great and everyone clapped for them. They performed 'Let it Go' and 'Crystal City March' and it was pleasant to hear these songs. The audience clapped loudly after their performance.

LKPS P.4 - P.6 Orchestra

Pauline Chan from 5B said, “I felt bored when I was waiting for my turn to perform, but I felt excited when I was performing. I want to join the performance next year.”

The teacher said, “Let's give thanks to Jesus for giving our students a chance to perform on this stage.”

After the students performed, the orchestra's conductor, Brian Sir, and Lee Kam Primary School's graduates (together) played the music of 'Fool Leopard'. All of the students in LKPS laughed because Brian Sir's expression was very funny during the performance.

The students who were in the LKPS Orchestra felt very happy on that day and they all want to have another performance again.
